

I'm pro-life. And pro-active.

I'm no public speaker. I'm not famous or powerful or super-popular. But I am pro-life—and I'm figuring out that there's more than one way to speak up for what I believe in. Like volunteering one Saturday a month at the pregnancy center downtown. Free baby-sitting for the single mom next door. And living a life that shows everyone around me how much they matter to God. There are tons of ways to be a voice for life . . . and change a few while you're at it.

To find out how you can be pro-life and pro-active—right where you are—visit beavoice.net

